It was subsequently amended in 2007 and 2009. The Competition Act, 2002, inter alia, provides for the following, namely:—

(a) establishment of the Competition Commission of India, which shall be an expert body and would function as a market regulator for preventing and regulating anti-competitive practices in the country in accordance with the provisions of the Act and it would also have advisory and advocacy functions in its role as a regulator which can also impose a penalty in certain cases specified in the Act;

2. The Competition Commission of India (the Commission) has become fully functional since 2009. In the light of the experiences gained in its operation and the working of the Commission, the Government of India in June, 2011, constituted an Expert Committee to examine and suggest the modifications in the Competition Act, 2002. As suggested by the Expert Committee, the Central Government has decided to amend the said Act and therefore, the Competition (Amendment) Bill, 2012 is being introduced.

3. The Competition (Amendment) Bill, 2012, inter alia, provides the following, namely:—

(a) to insert a new sub-clause (g) in clause (i) of sub-section (5) of section 3 so as to provide that anti-competitive agreements shall not restrict the matters regarding the protection of intellectual property rights for the purposes of clause (i) of sub-section (5) of the said section;

(c) to amend sub-clause (i) of clause (b) in the Explanation to section 5 so as to increase the percentage of voting rights from twenty-six per cent. or more to fifty per cent. or more for the purpose of regulation of combinations;

(d) to insert a new section 5A in the Act so as to confer power upon the Central Government to specify, in consultation with the Commission, different value of assets and turnover for any class of enterprises for the purpose of section 5 of the Act;

(e) the reference of issues by the Statutory Authority to the Commission and the Commission to the Statutory Authority are made mandatory;

(f) to empower the Commission to decide the matter after hearing the concerned parties in cases where the Commission may not agree with Director General’s investigation;

(g) to make provision that no penalty shall be imposed by the Commission for contravention of the provisions of section 3 or section 4 without giving an opportunity of being heard to the concerned person;
(h) to amend sub-section (II) of section 31 so as to reduce the period from two hundred and ten days to one hundred and eighty days within which the Commission has to pass an order or issue direction on combinations and also to amend sub-section (12) of the said section so as to increase the period from ninety working days to one hundred and eighty days to bring the time period on par with sub-section (II);

(i) to amend section 51 of the Act so as to substitute the expression “the Secretary” in place of the “the Registrar” in clause (a) of sub-section (2) of the said section as there is no post of the Registrar in the Commission.
