PRS LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH

Bill Summary

The Railway Property (Unlawful Possession) Amendment Bill, 2008

• The Railway Property (Unlawful Possession) Amendment Bill, 2008 was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on December 18, 2008. The Bill was referred to the Standing Committee on Railways (Chairperson: Shri Basudeb Acharia), which is scheduled to submit its report by February 15, 2009.

• The Railway Property (Unlawful Possession) Act, 1966 is related to unlawful possession of property belonging to the railway. The Bill amends the Act by strengthening the provisions that curb the offence of theft of railway property.

- The Bill enlarges the ambit of the law to include offences due to abetment or conspiracy to an offence of theft and misappropriation of railway property.
- The Bill allows an inquiry officer of the Railway Protection Force to inquire into thefts of railway property on receiving information about the commission of an offence under the law.

DISCLAIMER: This document is being furnished to you for your information. You may choose to reproduce or redistribute this report for non-commercial purposes in part or in full to any other person with due acknowledgement of PRS Legislative Research ("PRS"). The opinions expressed herein are entirely those of the author(s). PRS makes every effort to use reliable and comprehensive information, but PRS does not represent that the contents of the report are accurate or complete. PRS is an independent, not-for-profit group. This document has been prepared without regard to the objectives or opinions of those who may receive it.

