engineering and humanities; and
(d) such other members of the staff as may be laid down in the Statutes.

15. Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Statutes and the Ordinances, the Senate shall be the principal academic body of the Institute and shall have control over and be responsible for maintenance of standards of education, teaching and training, inter-departmental coordination, research, examinations and tests within the Institute and shall exercise such other powers and discharge such other duties and functions as may be prescribed or conferred upon it by the Statutes.

16. (1) The Chairperson shall preside at the meetings of the Board and at convocations of the Institute.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Chairperson to ensure that decisions taken by the Board are implemented.

(3) The Chairperson shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by or under this Ordinance, Statutes or by resolution of the Board.

17. (1) The Director of the Institute shall be appointed by the Visitor, on whose directions the Board shall issue an order of appointment.

(2) The Director shall be the principal academic and executive officer of the Institute and shall be responsible for proper administration of the Institute and for impairing of instruction and maintenance of discipline therein.

(3) The Director shall submit annual reports and accounts to the Board.

(4) The Director shall exercise such powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by this Ordinance, the Statutes or Ordinances or by resolution of the Board.

18. (1) The appointment of the Registrar of the Institute shall be on such terms and conditions as laid down by the Statutes.

(2) The Registrar shall be the custodian of records, the common seal, the funds of the Institute and the property of the Institute, as the Board shall commit to his charge.

(3) The Registrar shall act as the Secretary of the Board and such committees, as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(4) The Registrar shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by this Ordinance or the Statutes or the Board or the Director and in exercising such powers and in performing such duties, he shall be responsible to the Director for the proper discharge of his functions.
19. The powers and duties of officers other than those mentioned in this Chapter shall be determined by the Statutes.

20. For the purpose of enabling the Institute to discharge its functions efficiently under this Ordinance, the Central Government may after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, pay to the Institute in each financial year such sums of money and in such manner as it may think fit.

21. (1) The Institute shall maintain a fund to which the following shall be credited, namely:

(a) all moneys provided by the Central Government or any State Government;

examiners and moderators;
(f) the conduct of examinations;
(g) the maintenance of discipline among the students of the Institute; and
(h) any other matter which by this Ordinance or the Statutes is to be or may be provided for by the Ordinances.

28. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this section, Ordinances shall be made by the Senate.

(2) All Ordinances made by the Senate shall have effect from such date as it may direct, but every Ordinance so made shall be submitted, as soon as may be, to the Board and shall be considered by the Board at its next succeeding meeting.

(3) The Board shall have power by resolution to modify or cancel any such Ordinance and such Ordinance shall from the date of such resolution stand modified accordingly or cancelled, as the case may be.

29. (1) Any dispute arising out of a contract between the Institute and any of its employees shall, at the request of the employee concerned or at the instance of the Institute, be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Institute, one member nominated by the employee, and an umpire appointed by the Visitor.

(2) The decision of the Tribunal shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

(3) No suit or proceeding shall lie in any court in respect of any matter, which is required by sub-section (1) to be referred to the Tribunal of Arbitration.

(4) The Tribunal of Arbitration shall have power to regulate its own procedure.

(5) Nothing in any law for the time being in force relating to arbitration shall apply to arbitrations under this section.

CHAPTER III
MISCELLANEOUS

30. The Institute shall carry out such directions as may be issued to it from time to time by the Central Government for the efficient administration of this Ordinance.

31. No act of the Institute or Board or Senate or any other body set up under this Ordinance or the Statutes shall be invalid merely by reason of—
(a) any vacancy in or defect in the constitution thereof; or
(b) any defect in the selection, nomination or appointment of a person acting as a member thereof; or
(c) any irregularity in its procedure not affecting the merits of the case.

32. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.
(2) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before each of House of Parliament.

Transitional provisions

33. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance,—

(a) the Board of Governors of the institute functioning as such immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance shall continue to so function until a new Board is constituted for the Institute under this Ordinance, but on the constitution of a new Board under this Ordinance, the members of the Board holding office before such constitution shall cease to hold office;

(b) the Senate constituted in relation to the Institute before the commencement of this Ordinance shall be deemed to be the Senate constituted under this Ordinance until a Senate is constituted under this Ordinance for the Institute, but on the constitution of the new Senate under this Ordinance, the members of the Senate holding office before such constitution shall cease to hold office.
