STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Traditional norms and values of the Indian society laid stress on providing care for the elderly. However, due to withering of the joint family system, a large number of elderly are not being looked after by their family. Consequently, many older persons, particularly widowed women are now forced to spend their twilight years all alone and are exposed to emotional neglect and to lack of physical and financial support. This clearly reveals that ageing has become a major social challenge and there is a need to give more attention to the care and protection for the older persons. Though the parents can claim maintenance under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the procedure is both time-consuming as well as expensive. Hence, there is a need to have simple, inexpensive and speedy provisions to claim maintenance for parents.

2. The Bill proposes to cast an obligation on the persons who inherit the property of their aged relatives to maintain such aged relatives and also proposes to make provisions for setting up oldage homes for providing maintenance to the indigent older persons.

The Bill further proposes to provide better medical facilities to the senior citizens and provisions for protection of their life and property.

3. The Bill, therefore, proposes to provide for:

(a) appropriate mechanism to be set up to provide need-based maintenance to the parents and senior citizens

(b) providing better medical facilities to senior citizens

(c) for institutionalisation of a suitable mechanism for protection of life and property of older persons.

(d) setting up of oldage homes in every district.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

MEIRA KUMAR.

Clause 21 provides for the State Governments to institutionalise a mechanism for protection of life and property of the senior citizens. Since the existing infrastructure will be utilised for achieving these objectives, no additional expenditure is expected to be involved.
MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 29 of the Bill empowers the State Government to issue orders for removing any difficulty arising in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient and not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, by publishing the same in the Official Gazette.

Clause 30 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to give directions to the State Government as to carrying into execution of the provisions of this Act.

Clause 31 of the Bill empowers the State Government to make rules to carry out the provisions of the Act. Sub-clause (2) of that clause enumerates the matter with respect to which rules may be made under this clause.

These matters relate to, inter alia, prescribe the manner of holding inquiry under section 5 subject to such rules as may be prescribed under sub-section (1) of section 8; the powers and procedure of the Tribunal for the purpose of sub-section (2) of section 8; the maximum maintenance allowance which may be ordered under sub-section (2) of section 9; the scheme for management of oldage homes including the standards of various types of services to be provided by them under sub-section (2) of section 19; the powers and duties of authorities for implementing the provisions of this Act under sub-section (1) of section 22; a comprehensive action plan for protection of life and property of senior citizens under sub-section (2) of section 22.

Sub-clause (3) of clause 31 of the Bill provides for laying of the rules before each House of the State Legislature where it consists of two Houses or where such Legislature consists of one House before that House.

The matters in respect of which rules and orders may be made are matters of administrative details and procedure and, it is not practicable to make provisions for them in the Bill. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.
