*Under the Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir, the number of seats in the Legislative Assembly of that State excluding the 24 seats earmarked for Pakistan occupied territory is 87 out of which 7 seats have been reserved for the Scheduled Castes in pursuance of the Jammu and Kashmir Representation of the People Act, 1957.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under the provisions of articles 82 and 170(3) of the Constitution, as amended by the Constitution (Eighty-fourth Amendment) Act, 2001, Parliament enacted the Delimitation Act, 2002. In terms of the provisions contained in the Delimitation Act, the Delimitation Commission was set up to readjust the division of each State and Union territory into territorial constituencies for the purpose of elections to the House of the People and to the State Legislative Assemblies on the basis of 2001 Census.

2. The Delimitation Commission has since completed the delimitation work in respect of 25 States/Union territories and accordingly issued final orders under sections 8 and 9 of the Delimitation Act. Recently, the Delimitation (Amendment) Ordinance, 2008 (Ordinance 1 of 2008) was promulgated on 14th January, 2008 to insert new sections 10A and 10B in the Delimitation Act. Section 10A of the Delimitation Act empowers the President to defer delimitation exercise in a State in certain cases. In view of the prevailing conditions in North-East States of Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Manipur and Nagaland, four orders to defer the delimitation exercise in these States have been issued by the President on 8th February, 2008. Section 10B of the Delimitation Act has nullified the Delimitation Commission's orders issued with respect to the States of Jharkhand.

3. In view of above, in the States of Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Manipur, Nagaland and Jharkhand, the Delimitation of Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies Order, 1976 will continue to apply. The final orders in respect of the remaining 24 States/Union territories (except the State of Jharkhand) were required to be brought into force as provided in the second proviso to article 82 and the second proviso to clause (3) of article 170 of the Constitution by specifying the date by the President, as to when the re-adjustments shall take effect. In pursuance of the above provisions, the Presidential Order has been issued on 19th February, 2008 making delimitation orders issued by the Delimitation Commission under the Delimitation Act, effective from immediate effect in all the 22 States/Union territories except in the States of Tripura and Meghalaya in which case, the delimitation order shall take effect from 20th March, 2008 after the elections to the Legislative Assemblies in these States are over on 19th March, 2008.

4. The Representation of the People Act, 1950 (43 of 1950) (the RP Act) provides for the allocation of seats in and the delimitation of constituencies for the purpose of election to, the House of the People and the Legislatures of the States, preparation of electoral rolls, etc., and for matters connected therewith. The First Schedule and the Second Schedule to the said Act provides for allocation of seats in the House of the People and the total number of seats in the Legislative Assemblies alongwith the number of seats reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes therein. With the issuance of the Presidential Order specifying the date on which the delimitation orders notified by the Delimitation Commission shall take effect, it is necessary to amend the relevant provisions and the First and the Second Schedule of the RP Act to reflect the changes made by the delimitation orders notified by the Delimitation Commission.

5. In the Bill, it is also proposed to insert new section 8A in the RP Act, which will enable the Election Commission to conduct delimitation exercise in the North-East States (where delimitation exercise had been deferred in the exigencies of the prevailing conditions), as soon as the conditions in these States become conducive to the conduct of delimitation work. Sections 8 and 9 of the RP Act are proposed to be amended to enable the Election Commission to consolidate the delimitation orders issued by the Delimitation Commission into a single Order by superceding the existing Delimitation of Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies Order, 1976 having regard to sections 10A and 10B of the Delimitation Act, 2002.

6. The Bill seeks to achieve the above said objectives.

HANS RAJ BHARDWAJ

NEW DELHI;
The 28th February, 2008.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 4 (i) of the Bill provides for substitution of sub-section (1) of section 8 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950 which empowers the Election Commission to consolidate all orders relating to delimitation of parliamentary and assembly constituencies into one single order to be known as the Delimitation of Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies Order, 2008, and to maintain them up-to-date.

2. Clause 5 of the Bill provides for insertion of new section 8A in the said Act. Sub-section (1) of section 8 A empowers the Central Government to assess the situation in the North-East States, namely, Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Manipur and Nagaland as to whether the conditions prevailing there are conducive for the conduct of delimitation exercise and enable the Government to take follow-up action, if necessary, by advising the President to rescind the deferment orders issued in respect of such States. Section 8A further empowers the Election Commission to undertake the delimitation exercise in the States where it was deferred, once the deferment order is rescinded by the President.

3. Clause 6 of the Bill provides for substitution of clauses (a) and (aa) of sub-section (1) of section 9 which empowers the Election Commission to make correction of any error of printing mistake in the Delimitation of Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies Order, 2008 or make such amendments which appear it to be necessary or expedient for consolidating with the delimitation orders and notifications.

4. The orders made under the Bill is also required to be laid before each House of Parliament. The delegation of legislative powers is, therefore, of a normal character.
